

JANUARY 27, 1825.

Read twice, and committed to a committee of the whole House to-morrow.

A BILL

For the relief of James Cooke.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3 the proper accounting officers of the Treasury Department, 4 pay unto James Cooke, or to his legal representatives, out of 5 any money in the Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the 6 sum of one hundred and forty-eight dollars and forty cents, 7 being a balance on an abstract of provisions furnished by 8 James M'Laughlin, to ensign James Fuller, of the United 9 States' army, in the years eighteen hundred and thirteen and 10 eighteen hundred and fourteen, at Lewisburg, in Virginia.